INTRODUCTION

Welcome to the world of Jig and Saw... two colourful characters in search of the perfect puzzle to fit their jigsaw pieces!

Follow Jig and Saw on their incredible journey. They lived in a very unhappy place and needed to find a new home filled with love to share with a forever family... the perfect jigsaw puzzle!

Children's author David Lawrence Jones was inspired to create the characters from his involvement as patron of Families for Children Adoption.

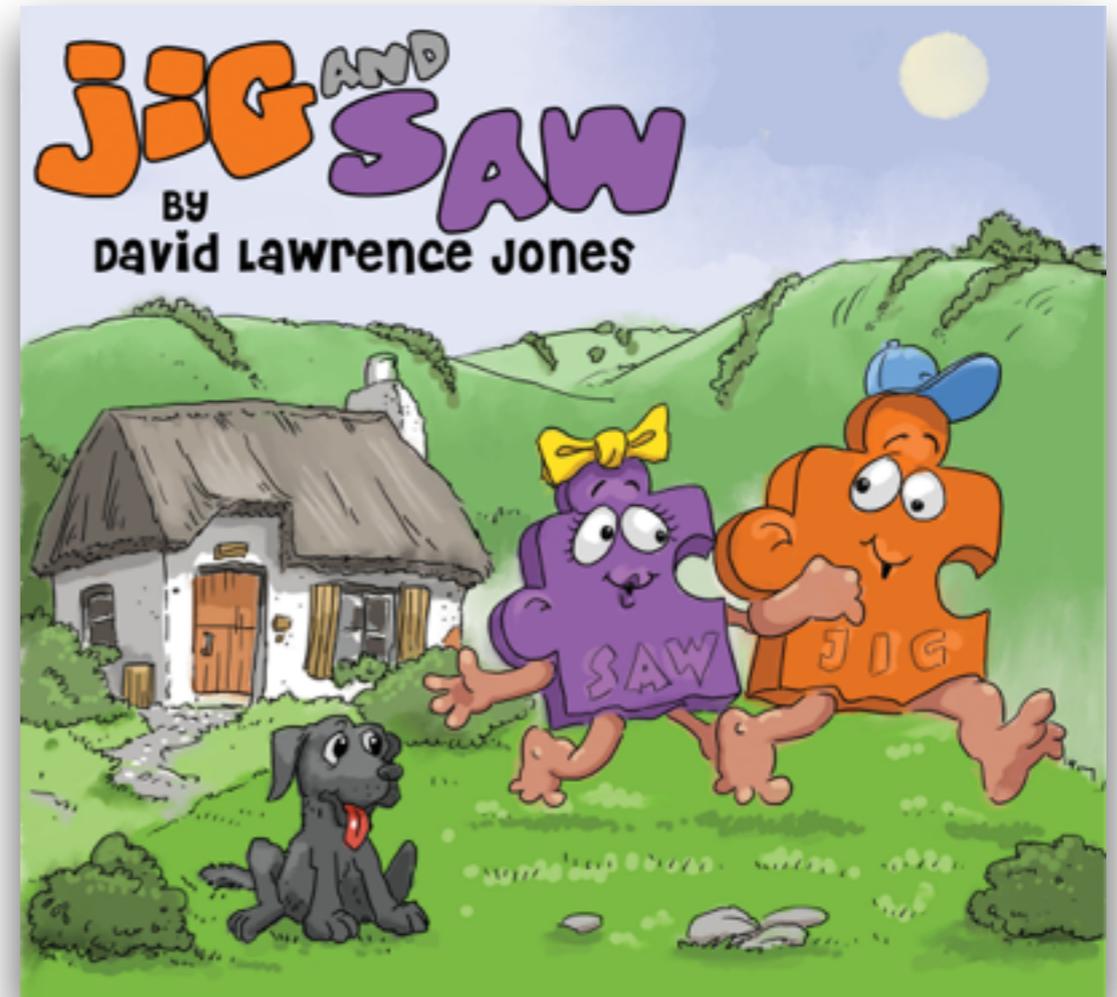

We hope you enjoy Jig and Saw's amazing adventures, which have been brought to life in rhyming prose inside a series of colourful picture books.

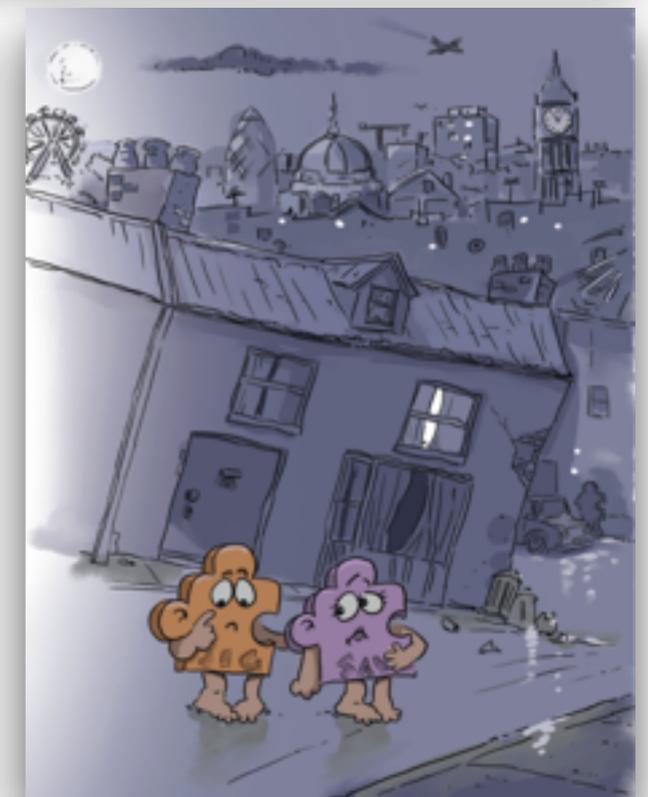

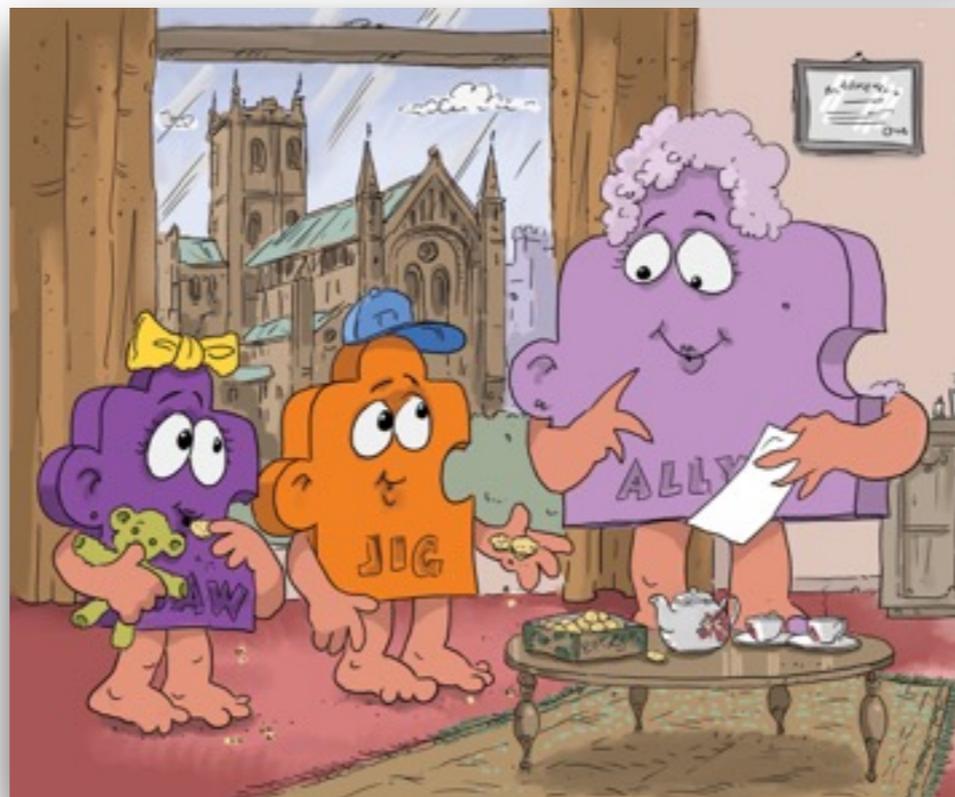

THE BOOKS

“Home Sweet Home”

Jig and Saw live in a dark place where sadness surrounds them. In the first book they embark on an incredible journey in search of a happy jigsaw puzzle that they can call home.

Brother and Sister meet lots of other jigsaw pieces, who help them through the fostering and adoption process.

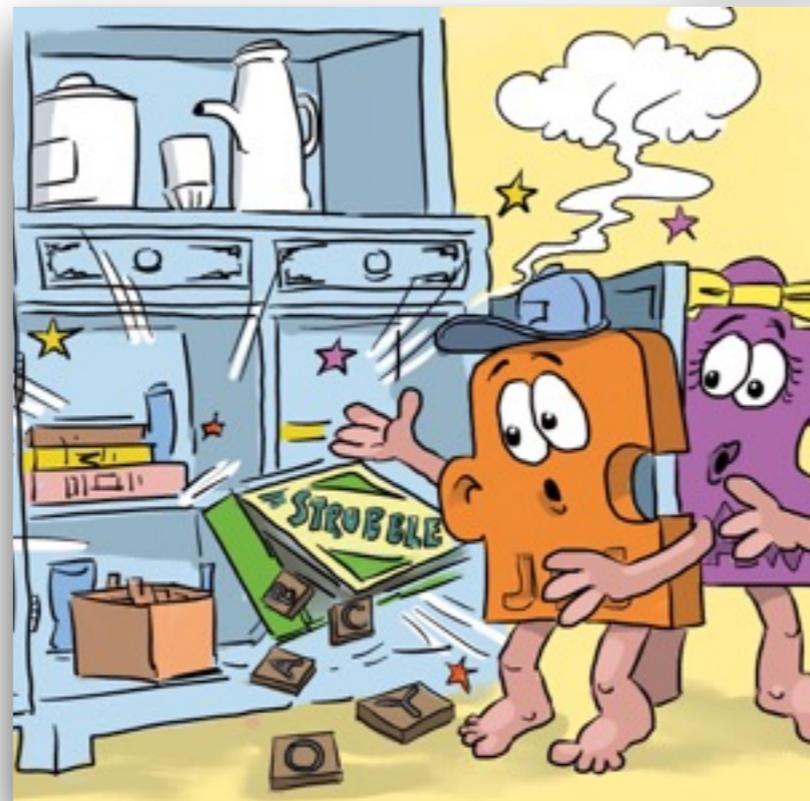

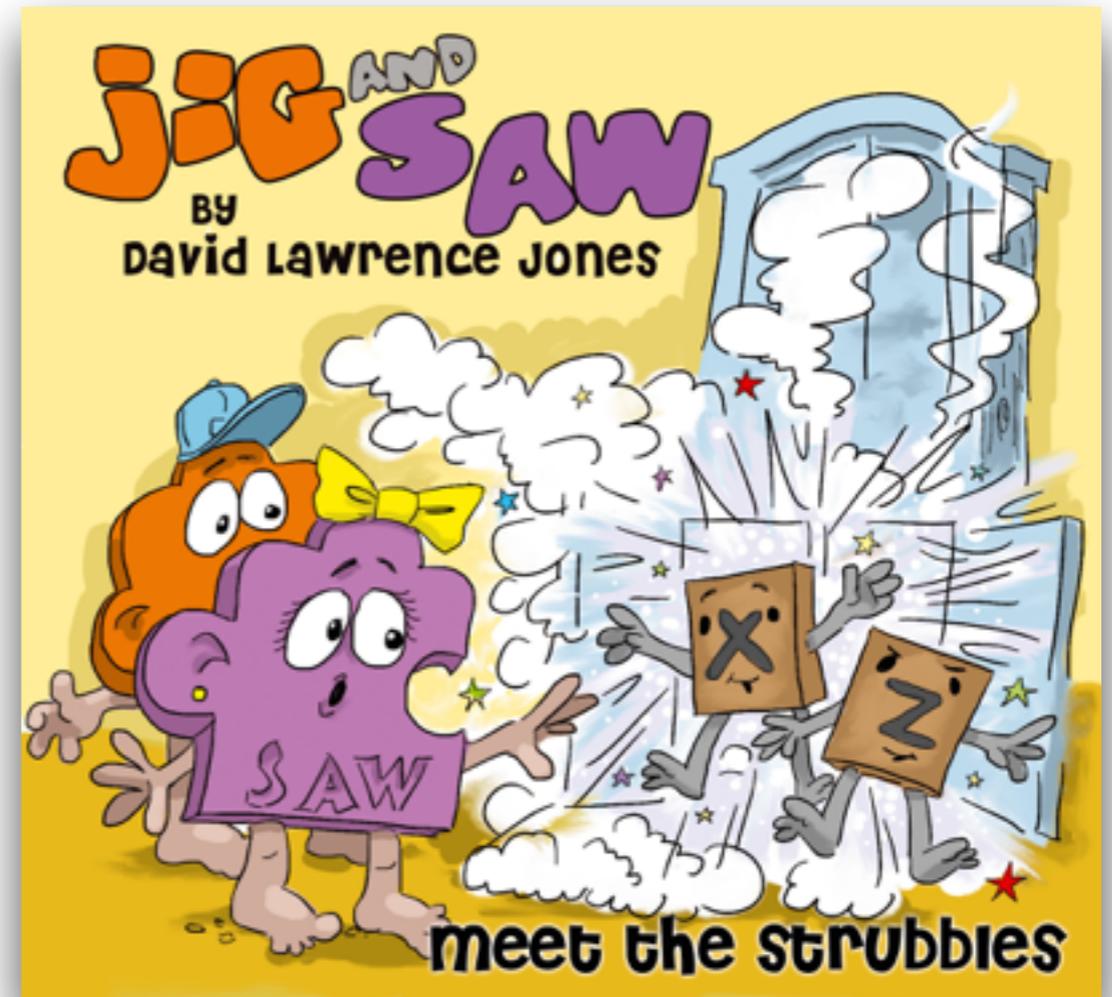

THE BOOKS

“Meet the Strubbles”

Jig and Saw open the doors of a blue cupboard that leads to a wonderful world of magical games. They discover an unusual word game call Strubble.

The curious jigsaw pieces embark on an incredible journey to Strubbleland in search of two missing word tiles... X and Z!

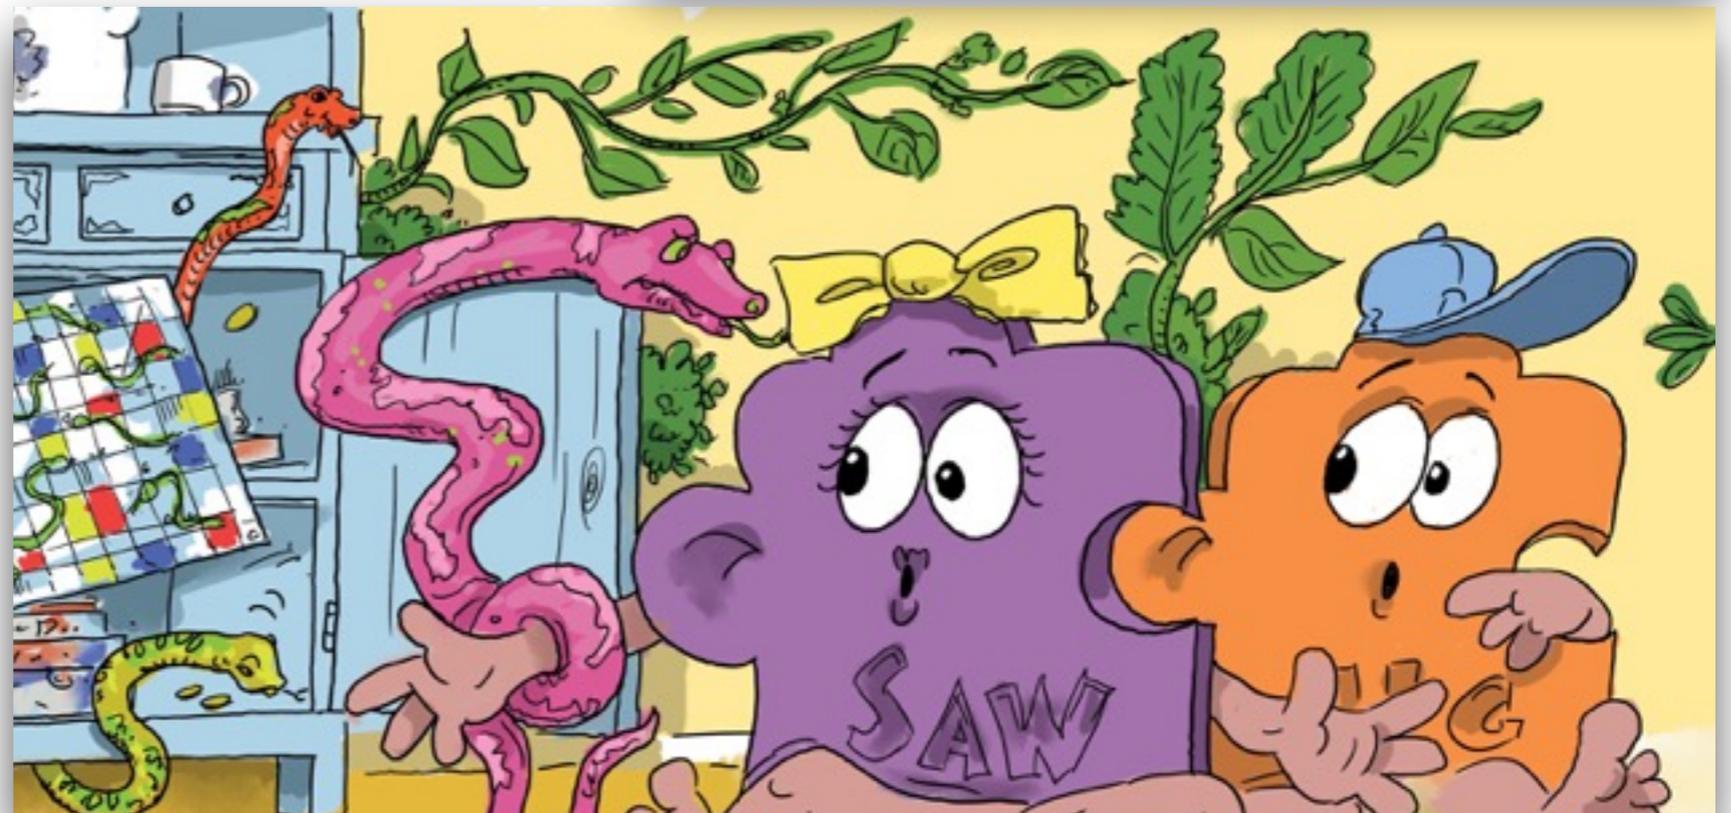

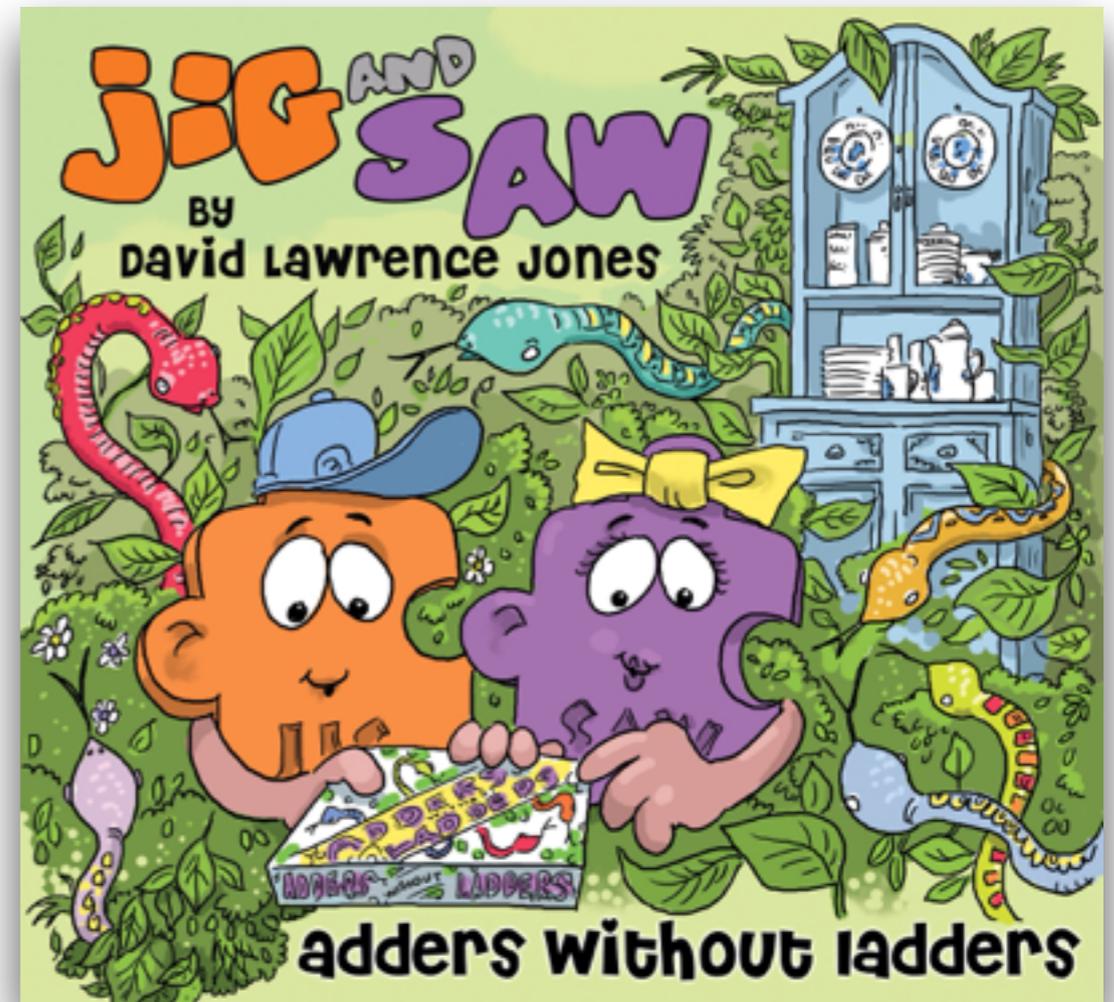

THE BOOKS

“Adders without Ladders”

Jig and Saw crave for another adventure and find out what's in store behind the cupboard door! This time they discover a game full of snakes but no ladders? but no ladders?

How do they reach the top without any ladders? Saw is taken prisoner by one of the snakes and Jig has to find a way of saving his sister.

MARKETING AND PROMOTIONS

Children's author and creator, David Lawrence Jones promotes Jig and Saw across the UK in schools, libraries, book stores and festivals.

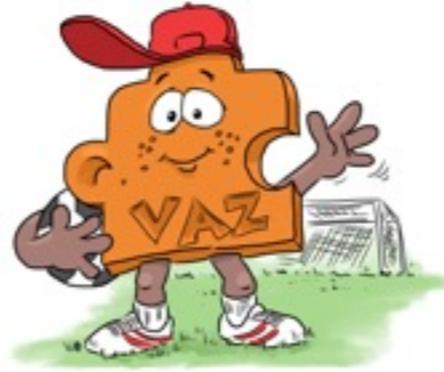

The characters have also featured in events in the Middle East to promote reading in the region.
