

Title information

Leon the Lion

By Ken Lake and Angie Lake
Illustrated by Vishnu Madhav

Across 10 exciting stories, Robin and his grandad explore car boot sales, bring toys to life and learn some important lessons.

Publication date:	August 2013
Price:	£4.99
ISBN:	9781782260288
Product format:	Paperback
Extent:	96 pp
Pictures:	59 Line drawings, black & white
Format:	129 x 198 mm
BIC Codes:	YFP, YFN
Series:	The Diaries of Robin's Toys

Description

When Robin bought Leon the Lion from the car-boot sale, he expected him to be fierce and scary but that could not have been further from the truth. Find out how the King of the Jungle became the King of the Jingle, and learn that if at first you don't succeed, try and try again!

The Diaries of Robin's Toys is a 10 book series which teaches children moral lessons through the magic of toys that come to life! Readers aged 5+ and fans of the Tom Gates series will love getting to know Robin's world.

Key Reviews

"The stories aren't just enchanting because of their charming characters, they also helps teach children learn to work collaboratively." – What Mummy Thinks

Author biographies

Ken was born in rural Norfolk during a period of austerity following the Second World War. He was sent to boarding school at the age of thirteen before later living and working in the Middle East, Nigeria and Spain. Following a near-death experience, Ken had a supernatural encounter which inspired him to pick up a pen and begin his writing career.

Angie Lake is a freelance writer with a background in the Spanish music industry. Born in the UK and raised on the Spanish Costa Blanca, Angie travelled extensively. She studied Psychology in Barcelona and began her writing career in the Spanish national music press. Angie also writes novels and children's fiction.