- Genre : Adventure / Comic
- Target : 3-7 years old
- Format : HD 16:9 2D TV series (30 minutes X 26 Episodes)

Synopsis

YooHoo and Friends are back to save the Yootopia suffering from pollution in the environment. In their peaceful village, their new friends are flocking to search for shelter after losing their homes on Earth. YooHoo and Friends get along with their new friends in a town filled with joy and friendship. There is a magical spring in the Yootopia, where people say that it can make you youthful forever with a couple of sips, it also helps our friends keep pure hearts and the peace in the village. One day, Mr. Big Boss learns about this miraculous spring and plans to make big profits selling this enchanted water. He and his never-helpful-assistants, Oops and Coops, watch for an opportunity to pollute YooHoo and Friends beautiful town and drive them out to build a factory in Yootopia to produce and sell "Live Forever" water bottles.

YOOHOO

Playful, full of curiosity... and sometimes this leads to trouble, but YooHoo always knows right from wrong. He can run at super speed leaving his friends with no chance of catching him!

PAMMEE

Loves all the pretty and 'bling-bling' things in the world. She has a keen sense of hearing but this does sometimes mean she is kept awake at night by even the smallest sounds.

ROODEE

Genius in invention. Roodee can come up with everything in need. A bit far from braveness, but he always support and help his friends in silence. However, there's something about Roodee!, and that is dual personality to have him transformed like Hulk when his glasses are taken off.

CHEWOO

Careless and talkative, she is also a daydreamer. She has a great sense of smell and can pick up scents from far, far away. She brings hustle and bustle to Yootopia!

LEMMEE

Always grumpy no matters what his friends do to cheer him up. He tends to look at the negative sides and likes to pretend he knows everything. With great night vision, he can see well in the dark to guide his friends though this makes him sensitive to bright lights and he even faints once in a while!

Synopsis

In peaceful Eco-Farm there is a legend that has been passed on through many generations. The legend tells of a magical spring water stream that gives everlasting youth. The evil Big Boss finds out about this legend and in order to take over the magical spring water, he orders Oops and Koops (evil alligators) to hassle the animals and chase them out of Eco-Farm. Oops and Koops set off on their mission and begin to sell fake magical spring water to the animals. The animals innocently buy and drink the fake water and Oops and Koops spread nasty rumors that the magical spring water makes them break out in a terrible rash. The animals of Eco-Farm begin to panic and contemplate leaving the village. However, YooHoo and his friends figure out Oops and Koops' fake water scheme and they bring everything back to normal.

Synopsis

Big Boss continues with his efforts to take over Greenit and orders Oops and Koops to dump wastewater into the village. The animals drink the contaminated water and see a change in their personalities. They become sensitive and easily irritated which leads to chaos in the village. As time passes the animals' faces are cast with darkness and they become increasingly violent. Yoohoo and his friends realize that Big Boss was responsible for all the chaos, so they set out to stop his evil plan. They find Oops and Koops' hideout and see them pouring the wastewater into Greenit. They give the alligators a taste of their own medicine by sending the wastewater right back to Oops and Koops. Once again, Yoohoo and his friends save Eco-Farm!

Synopsis

YooHoo does not only like to run but he also loves playing pranks. One day YooHoo's friends decide to get back at him by planning a big prank during the village's race. On top of this, Oops and Koops also decide to make the race difficult for YooHoo by setting up traps along the racetrack. YooHoo, who doesn't realize what is going on behind his back, is extremely confident that he will win the race. When a new rival, Caramel, arrives YooHoo is surprised and taken back. Finally the race starts and YooHoo runs with all his might! Although he encounters the traps set up along the way, he overcomes them and continues on with the race. In order to beat Caramel, YooHoo even takes shortcuts and almost wins the race but Caramel beats him by one second! YooHoo loses the bet he made with his friends before the race and promises never to play pranks on them again.

Synopsis

Yohoo and his friends are eagerly waiting for the Fruit Festival! However, an unknown animal ruins all the fruits and so, the Fruit Festival is cancelled. In addition to the bad news Pammeé's house is broken into and a thief has stolen all the food in the refrigerator. Yohoo and his friends decide to take things into their own hands and begin a search for the criminal. They hide and wait in the fruit garden and finally catch the thief. The thief is a chameleon named Caramel that can camouflage itself according to its surrounding environment. After listening to the chameleon's story Yohoo and his friends realize that Caramel is a good animal and they all become friends. Caramel feels responsible for the cancellation of the Fruit Festival so he decides to make things right by planting a magic rainbow seed to produce a variety of fruit. Due to Caramel's efforts the Fruit Festival is opened and all the animals are happy once again.

Synopsis

Big Boss, Oops, and Koops want to take over the village, so they decide to lure all the animals into one place. Yoohoo and his friends are the first victims and are lured to an amusement park, which is located near the Death Forest. Oops and Koops sabotage the rides at the amusement park so that Yoohoo and his friends cannot get off of them. At the same time, Caramel who was playing hide and go seek see that his friends are missing and goes out to look for them. While on the search, Caramel bumps into Lemmee who had just escaped from the amusement park. Together they save their friends from Oops and Koops by snatching the master switch that turns off all the amusement rides.

Synopsis

Pammee is not only the most beautiful animal living in Greenit but is also a great singer. With her looks and angelic voice she captures the hearts of Yoohoo and his friends. Her friends try very hard to get Pammee's attention and she takes the attention for granted. One day Yoohoo, Lemmee, and Roodee ask Pammee to sing for them, but she says she needs certain objects in order to sing. Therefore, she asks her friends to obtain these items for her. Through this process her friends become disappointed with Pammee and instead, turn their attention to Chewoo who shows off her cool dancing skills.

Synopsis

Roodee, the genius inventor, fixes all the broken items his friends bring to him. Roodee also loves to play pranks on his friends and uses his intelligence to trick them. He plays pranks through his inventions and sabotages the items that he fixes for his friends. Yoohoo and his friends are fed up with Roodee's tricks and become so angry that they confront him. However, Roodee runs away from his angry friends and is not able to return back home all night.

Synopsis

Oops and Koops plan to kidnap Roodee to force him to create an invention to bother the Greenit animals. One day Roodee goes into the Death Forest to gather items he needs for his inventions. Oops and Koops take this opportunity to kidnap Roodee! Back in the village, Yoohoo and his friends look for Roodee to fix their broken objects. When they see that he is missing they set out to search for him in the Death Forest. While in the forest they learn that Roodee was kidnapped by Oops and Koops, so they head to Big Boss' castle to save him.

Synopsis

One day the animals' valuable items begin to go missing. Pamme's mirror, Roodee's encyclopedia, Chewoo's pizza, and Lemmee's bowtie have vanished into thin air! Everyone but Yoo-hoo is missing something, so naturally all the animals begin to suspect Yoo-hoo as the thief! However, Yoo-hoo has nothing to do with the disappearances and Caramel, the chameleon, is the one responsible for the missing items. It just so happens that back in Caramel's village on an animal's birthday, it was a ritual to secretly take items that they wanted from their friends, and later get them to guess which items were missing. Caramel had thought that this was the same in Greenit, which was the cause to the chaotic situation. The situation gets out of hand, and all the animals are certain that Yoo-hoo is the criminal and begin to act out on him. Caramel feels bad for Yoo-hoo and decides to fix the situation by secretly putting everything back in its original place.

Synopsis

Big Boss orders Oops and Koops to gather and burn firewood. The smoke and heat from the firewood creates a greenhouse effect and it becomes increasingly hot in Eco-Farm. This effect was all part of Big Boss' plan to chase the animals out of Greenit, so that he could take over the magical spring water stream. However the plan begins to backfire on Big Boss, when along with all the animals, Oops and Koops also feel the effects of the heat and become very lazy. Not only that, but the magical spring water begins to dry up due to the heat as well! Oops and Koops can't handle the heat any longer and run to Yoo-hoo and his friends, where they explain the cause of the heat and ask them for help.

Synopsis

Chewoo discovers a dinosaur's egg left at her doorsteps. As the egg hatches a baby dilophosaurus appears and it believes that Chewoo is its mother. From that day forth Chewoo begins to take care of the baby dinosaur. While Chewoo and the baby spend their days in bliss, the mother dilophosaurus come to Greenit and rampages the village to find her missing baby. This chaos all began with Oops and Koops who had stolen the egg from the mother dinosaur and placed it in front of Chewoo's house. It was all part of their mischievous plan and when the mother dinosaur arrives in Greenit, Oops and Koops lure the baby dinosaur and trap it in a cage. However, Yoohoo and his friends find the kidnapped baby dinosaur and return it safely back to its mother, so they could leave in peace.

Synopsis

Pammee has the best ears in all of Greenit and can even hear sounds that are far away. Thanks to Pammee's great hearing skills, the friends were able to put a stop to Oops and Koops who were throwing garbage away in Greenit during the night. One day a gift arrives at Pammee's house. In the gift box there are a pair of small and round earmuffs. She immediately loves the earmuffs since she was unable to sleep at night due to all the noise. That very night she places the earmuffs in her ears and falls sound asleep. The next day Pammee wakes up and forgets that she has the earmuffs in her ears. Throughout the day Pammee continually mishears what her friends say and is unable to put her super hearing power to good use.

| Episode 13. The Treasure Ship Quest

Synopsis

The friends are listening to Chewoo's story about a sunken treasure ship at the bottom of Greenit's ocean. Yoohoo and his friends decide to look for the ship and they use Roodee's robot fish to lead the way. While on their treasure ship hunt they come upon many sick ocean creatures. Suddenly squids appear and start spraying them with squid ink because they believe that their ocean friends are sick because of the land animals. Yoohoo and his friends find out that Oops and Koops were responsible for making the ocean creatures sick. They decide to help cure the creatures by giving them some magical spring water that has healing powers.

| Episode 14. We Can't Live Without Roodee

Synopsis

There is a lot of damage in Greenit after a dinosaur rampaged the village. Yoo-hoo's roof is damaged, Chewoo's house is missing windows and doors, Pamme's water pipes are broken, and the lampposts are not working, so Lemmee has to be there each night to light the way. Everyone needs Roodee's help to fix all that is damaged. Roodee is so busy fixing everything that he doesn't even have time to eat. However, Oops and Koops secretly begin to break everything Roodee fixes! Not only that but the two alligators use a huge fan to bother the animals even more. Oops and Koops are in for a big surprise when Roodee's glasses are blown away by the strong wind and he transforms into a hulk!

Synopsis

Amongst the group of friends Yohoo has naturally taken the place as the leader. One day, Lemmee exclaims that he also wants to be the leader. Chewoo, Pamme, and Roodee decide to hold a tournament to pick a leader among the two. In the end, Lemmee wins and becomes the leader. However, the friends cannot stand Lemmee's leadership because he always has to do everything his way and doesn't listen to their opinions. The friends turn away from Lemmee and ask Yohoo to be their leader again. But something makes Yohoo tired of being the leader and goes back to ask Lemmee to take his place.

 Synopsis

One day a swarm of locusts fly into Greenit and ruins all the plants, fruits etc. leaving nothing to eat. Without any food, all the animals go hungry and some even decide to leave the village. Of course this result was all a part of Big Boss' plan. He created robot locusts to gather and lead a swarm of locusts to attack Eco-Farm. Roodee figures out the truth behind the locusts and comes up with a great idea. He finds the biggest robot locust and re-directs it to lead the swarm right back to Big Boss' hideaway.

| Episode 17. Chewoo Catches a Cold

Synopsis

YooHoo and his friends learn that when your nose is stuffed up it is hard to smell anything. They find this very interesting and begin to eat things like onions and garlic with their noses plugged. At this time an annual cooking contest was being held in Greenit. Chewoo, who has the best tasting buds and smell, is the judge for the contest. Unfortunately right before the contest Chewoo catches a cold and loses her sense of smell! On the day of the contest Chewoo chooses YooHoo's awful dish and gives it first place. Not knowing how awful YooHoo's dish tastes, Oops and Koops steal the dish and gives it to Big Boss to eat.

Synopsis

For months Roodee has been working hard on a new invention, a transforming robot! He is just placing the finishing touches on the robot when Oops and Koops steal the robot, thinking it is complete. Big Boss is very happy with Oops and Koops and tells them to make the robot attack Greenit. The robot is transformed into something evil and begins to ruin everything in the village.

 Synopsis

Big Boss, Oops, and Koops use a loudspeaker to create a lot of noise in the village of Greenit to bother the animals. They place the loudspeaker at the entrance of the village and Oops and Koops, who are tone-deaf, begin singing. All the animals cannot stand the awful singing and noise! Pammee who has the best hearing is bothered the most by the noise but she uses earmuffs to plug her ears. Pammee then approaches Oops and Koops and shows off her fabulous singing skills. Forgetting all about their mission, Oops and Koops are awed by her beautiful voice and asks her to give them vocal lessons. After learning some singing skills Oops and Koops return back to their hideaway without fulfilling their mission.

Synopsis

Big Boss creates a love potion to create chaos among the animals of Greenit. He places the potion in delicious pies and orders Oops and Koops to distribute them to the animals. Not being able to resist food, Oops and Koops eat all the pies on their way to the village. Just then Chewoo walks past them and having eaten the potion, Oops and Koops fall in love with Chewoo! They begin serenading Chewoo with love letters, flowers etc., in order to receive her love. Pammee doubts Oops and Koops' feelings for Chewoo and decides to test their love. After realizing that they have true feelings for Chewoo, Pammee becomes a little jealous and contemplates what Chewoo has that she doesn't.

| Episode 21. The Sleepwalking Monster

Synopsis

In the Death Forest Oops and Koops are attacked by a huge dark shadow and they are so frightened that they run back to Big Boss' castle. They tell Big Boss that there is a monster in the forest but Big Boss doesn't believe them. Back in Greenit, YooHoo and his friends are shocked because the village had been ruined overnight. The monster is actually Roodee who turns into a hulk and sleepwalks during the night. Roodee, who doesn't realize that he is the monster, sees a big footprint inside his house and becomes scared. His friends, however, figure out that it was Roodee and explains the truth to him. Roodee tries very hard to fix this phenomenon and even takes medicine. But as night comes and Roodee falls asleep, he turns into a hulk and leaves his house once again.

Synopsis

Oops and Koops figure out Roodee's transformation secret and immediately lets Big Boss know. Big Boss sets up a plan to use Roodee's secret! Roodee on the other hand, is trying very hard to find a cure to stop his transformations. Yoohoo and his friends also help Roodee by researching into different cures. Oops and Koops use this opportunity to trick Roodee into believing that they have a cure, and then they kidnap him! Having kidnapped Roodee, Oops and Koops try to figure out how to make him transform into a hulk.

Synopsis

Greenit has become a garbage field because of Oops and Koops. All the animals are busy cleaning up the garbage but Yoohoo is not helping his friends. When his friends ask why he is not helping, he suddenly begins to move here and there pretending to clean. All the animals are filthy from working so hard, but they cannot wash themselves because Oops and Koops have broken the water tank. The animals decide to gather the water that they can get their hands on, but Yoohoo doesn't think that it is important. Suddenly, a fire breaks out in Yoohoo's house and he regrets not gathering water when his friends told him to do so.

Synopsis

Oops and Koops begin reminiscing about their past. A long time ago they were very rich and had so many rooms in their house that they would always lose their way. One day, Oops and Koops go on a trip and when they return, they find their bird butler has stolen everything they own leaving them with nothing. They then meet Big Boss who is preparing to search for the magical spring water and needs two helpers. Oops and Koops leave with Big Boss to search for the magical spring water which they hope will make them rich again. In the present day, Oops and Koops believe that it is all because of YooHoo and his friends that they cannot find the magical spring water, and so they continue to bother the Greenit animals.

| Episode 25. The Legend of the Penguins

Synopsis

In the land of Eco-Farm where the weather is always consistent, it suddenly begins to snow. It snows for a few days and Eco-Farm turns into a white wonderland. Then one day a big glacier appears on the shore of Eco-Farm's ocean. The glacier is from Icy Icy Land and on the glacier there are three penguins. They explain that the glacier had melted and floated down to Eco-Farm. The three penguins were skinny and could even fly! However, during their time in Greenit they eat a lot of delicious fruits and gain so much weight that they can no longer fly. Roodee comes to the rescue by inventing a wooden windmill to help the penguins get back to their home.

Synopsis

One day Pammee accidentally drops her mirror into the river and an otter retrieves it for her. The otter brings two mirrors out of the river and asks Pammee which one belongs to her. Pammee takes her mirror and the otter gives her the second one as well. The second mirror is actually a magical one and has the power to make everything look more beautiful than it really is. Grandfather Owl tells Yoohoo and his friends that the mirror belonged to a princess long ago and goes on to tell them the legend of the Greenit princess.

Synopsis

Big Boss has created a magic potion. This potion enables Oops and Koops to transform into a fake Yoo-hoo and Pam-mee. In their disguises they go to the village and begin to make trouble. While in the village the real Yoo-hoo and Pam-mee confront them, and they begin to fight over who is real and who is fake. The friends decide to test them with a quiz contest that eventually the fake Yoo-hoo and Pam-mee win! However the fake Yoo-hoo and Pam-mee have a weakness. If they wash themselves they will turn back into their real form as Oops and Koops. The real trouble begins for them when they start smelling bad and their friends insist that they wash themselves with water.

Synopsis

Picasso comes to Greenit to draw mystical animals just like the great artist, Davinchi. Picasso meets Chewoo, who he has seen in Davinchi's painting, and begins to draw portraits of Yoofoo and his friends. After the paintings are finished, only Chewoo seems to like the end result. It just so happens that Chewoo has similar drawing techniques to Picasso and begins to show her work to him. Picasso is so awed by her drawings that he begins to cry. At the same time, Oops and Koops use a large vacuum cleaner to suck all the fruit from Greenit and creates chaos among the animals. As Picasso sees the frantic animals running away from the vacuum cleaner, he is inspired by the scene and begins to create great drawings.

Synopsis

Yooahoo and his friends have gone to play in the ocean. They meet a squid and learn there is a black spring inside the ocean. Oops and Koops overhear this and tells Big Boss about the black spring. Big Boss orders them to search for the black spring since it may be where the oil spring lies. Oops and Koops find the ocean's black spring and unplugs the entrance. All of sudden oil starts to spill and they begin pumping it to take back to Big Boss. However, the oil is not pumped properly and the ocean becomes polluted with oil! Yooahoo and his friends work together to help the ocean return back to its' healthy state.

| Episode 30. The Disappearance of Pammee

Synopsis

Pammee is diagnosed with an illness that cannot be cured. It is the princess illness! The doctor tells Yoo-hoo and his friends that the only way to cure Pammee is to refrain from telling her she is pretty. At the same time back at Big Boss' castle, Oops and Koops are being reprimanded for not doing anything right. Big Boss gives them an order to kidnap either Pammee or Chewoo. Oops and Koops successfully capture Chewoo but eventually they lose their way in the forest because of Chewoo's constant chattering. They are so annoyed with her that they just let her go. Pammee, who hasn't heard any compliments on her looks, goes out to find jewels to make herself look prettier. Oops and Koops take advantage of the opportunity and kidnap Pammee!

| Episode 31. The Search for Pammee

Synopsis

YooHoo and his friends go to Big Boss' castle to look for Pammee. On their way there, they pass the Death Forest and are affected by the scent of a mushroom that makes the mind go fuzzy. Not having control, they fall into a hole in the ground and are chased by a monster spider. They somehow overcome all the obstacles and find their way to the castle to save Pammee!

Synopsis

Chewoo opens a party with her friends to celebrate her birthday. On this day she makes a birthday wish but it is an unrealistic one. However, the next morning Chewoo wakes up to find that her wish had come true! Chewoo and her friends are so shocked and decide to hold another birthday party to make another wish. Chewoo makes a new wish and the next day, to everyone's surprise her wish comes true again! Chewoo continues to make absurd wishes and one day wishes that her house could fly. The next morning she wakes up to see that her house has wings and is flying in the sky. She travels here and there in her flying house, when suddenly her house drops from the sky...

Synopsis

A solar eclipse is about to occur in the village. As the sun disappears it becomes dark in Greenit. The solar eclipse also increases Yoohoo and his friends' powers! Pammee is stressed because she hears everything louder than normal, and Chewoo is in agony because she can smell anything and everything! Roodee transforms into a hulk, Lemmee cannot stop the light shining from his eyes, and Yoohoo cannot take a few steps without his speed getting out of control. On top of all this, Oops and Koops are taking advantage of the darkness and dress up as ghosts to scare all the animals in Greenit.

Synopsis

One day in Greenit a big sinkhole appears in the forest. At first Yoohoo and his friends are awed by this phenomenon but become worried as more sinkholes appear in the village. Yoohoo and his friends all fall into the sinkhole and meet a mole deep in the ground. They find out that the mole lost its way home and all the digging to find its way back had resulted in the numerous sinkholes. Yoohoo and his friends set out to help the mole find its home and begin their underground search.

Synopsis

Oops and Koops are planning their birthday party but realize that they don't have many friends to invite. In order to receive gifts from the Greenit animals they begin singing terribly around the village to get the animals to give them gifts. On Oops and Koops' birthday, Yoo-hoo and his friends prepare a big gift and a small one. They tell Oops and Koops that the big one is for the older alligator and the smaller one is for the younger alligator. Upon hearing this, Oops and Koops begin fighting over who is older, and not being able to stand their bickering Yoo-hoo and his friends decide to hold a test to see who is older.

Synopsis

There is a 'Best Friends' contest happening in Greenit and the winning team receives tickets to the 'Fantasy Island'. Each team is made up of 4 friends and in order for Oops and Koops to participate they come up with a plan. To get two more animals to be on their team they stand in front of all the animals in Greenit and promise never to bother them again. Their plan works and the very weak deer and loud chatterbox parrot decide to be on their team. Oops and Koops are excited because now they have a team of 4 to participate in the 'Best Friends' contest.

 Synopsis

Big Boss has created a potion that turns Carmel into a spy. Oops and Koops use Carmel to place Yoohoo and his friends in danger. Yoohoo and his friends are busy trying to figure out who is responsible for all the weird happenings in the village. After investigating they realize that Carmel was being controlled by Big Boss and was responsible for all the chaos! Roodee develops an antidote to cure Carmel and bring him back to normal. Carmel is angry with Big Boss and plans to get revenge!

Synopsis

Something strange is going on in Greenit. Everyone turns off their lights when they go to bed but when they wake up in the morning all the lights have been turned on again! Not only that, but even the home appliances are turning on by themselves. Yoohoo and his friends figure out that Oops and Koops have been turning on all the electronic appliances in Greenit. Because of Oops and Koops there is an electricity shortage and a blackout occurs in the village. Roodee comes to the rescue by inventing alternative ways to produce energy.

Synopsis

Roodee is sad because he is not very good at dancing. One day he decides to participate in Greenit's dance contest to show everyone his dance skills. He observes the other animals' dances and tries to figure out what dance he should choose, but realizes it is easier said than done. He then sees Oops and Koops gracefully performing ballet. Intrigued by their dance, Roodee decides to learn ballet for himself!

Synopsis

Big Boss invents a machine that creates rain, and uses it to pour heavy rain in the village. It rains so much that Greenit becomes flooded! The water covers all of Greenit and the animals are either stuck in the flood or floating away in the water. Luckily, thanks to Roodee's boat invention, many animals are saved. It was Big Boss' plan to flood the village and then take over it but his plan comes to an end when the rain machine breaks down and cannot be stopped. His plan is ruined when it rains so much that even Big Boss' castle becomes flooded!

Synopsis

A rumor spreads around Greenit that the magical spring water has become polluted. Due to the rumor the animals stop drinking from the magical spring water. Without drinking the water the animals of Greenit start to age and become old. Even Yoohoo and his friends begin to age and they also lose their super powers. Big Boss, who also hears this rumor, does not drink from the water either. With the contamination of the magical spring water it becomes useless for Big Boss, Oops, and Koops to stay in Greenit and they contemplate leaving for good.

Synopsis

Within the Death Forest there is a cemetery. One day, because of Oops and Koops, the ghosts of the cemetery are awoken. Yoohoo becomes friends with the little flying squirrel ghost and introduces it to his other friends. In return, the little flying squirrel ghost wants to introduce Yoohoo to other ghost friends and takes him to meet them. Somewhere along the way Yoohoo and the little flying squirrel ghost participate in a hidden treasure hunt as well.

 Synopsis

Oops and Koops are tired of being ordered around and demands a vacation. Big Boss fires them instead and Oops and Koops take the opportunity to go on a vacation. Big Boss on the other hand begins to look for animals to replace Oops and Koops. He hires twin cat brothers but they outsmart Big Boss! He then hires an impetuous rat but finds it too stressful to work with it. Oops and Koops also try handling different jobs but nothing works out for them in end.

Synopsis

Oops and Koops capture skunks and plan to use them to chase the animals out of Greenit. They begin to make a lot of noise using instruments, which trigger the skunks to relieve their smelly gas. The stench smothers all of Greenit and the animals begin to run away from the smell. Yoohoo and his friends find out that the smell is coming from the kidnapped skunks. They rescue the skunks and then plan to get revenge on Oops and Koops.

Synopsis

Pammees is addicted to a radio program. She is captured by the DJ's voice and continually writes fan letters to him. The DJ chooses Pammees's letters and even reads them on air. She writes about how the animals of Greenit were having a hard time sleeping because Oops and Koops would not stop bothering them and the DJ shows his empathy. But later Pammees finds out that the radio DJ is actually Koops!

Synopsis

Lemmee has always been known to be pessimistic about everything. He even hands out a booklet titled, 'Things I Hate,' to Yoo-hoo and his friends to make sure they know his dislikes. Yoo-hoo and his friends decide to try and fix Lemmee's pessimistic nature. Yoo-hoo proposes that if Lemmee does not complain or say anything negative for one week then he will give up his leadership position to Lemmee. To everyone's surprise Lemmee agrees and even burns his 'Things I Hate' book in front of his friends, and vows to never say anything negative again.

Synopsis

While Roodee performs an experiment he accidentally shrinks himself as small as an insect. Yoohoo and his friends are shocked to see Roodee so small and try to figure out how to turn him back to normal. While Roodee waits for his friends to find a cure he becomes friends with other insects. Oops and Koops are also up to no good as they use fake flowers to attract and capture honeybees. As the bees go missing, the food in Greenit diminishes and Roodee realizes how important the honeybees are to their village.

Synopsis

Oops and Koops have polluted the ocean and because of them a red tide phenomenon occurs. Not being able to breathe in the poor conditions the ocean creatures retreat to the land using their fish tank car. Yoohoo and his friends begin searching for the animals responsible for creating the red tide phenomenon, and in the end find out it was Oops and Koops! The king of the ocean captures Oops and Koops and punishes them for polluting the ocean. The punishment is to get Oops and Koops to work day and night to gather red clay and pour it into the ocean, which in return will help fix the red tide phenomenon.

Synopsis

The Greenit animals are curious about Big Boss. Pammee imagines Big Boss to be handsome, but Lemmee imagines him to be ugly. Yoohoo and his friends have different ideas about Big Boss and their imaginations go wild. Oops and Koops also begin to wonder about Big Boss and they secretly sneak into his office when he is out of the castle. They use Big Boss' possessions to try and figure out who he really is. On the other hand, Big Boss is weary of the alligators' actions and becomes suspicious of Oops and Koops.

Synopsis

The magical spring water is drying up and the stream is no longer being replenished from the ground below. As the Greenit animals are worrying about the water, Grandfather Owl goes on to tell them a legend. The legend is that somewhere within the Friendly Forest there is a water balloon that is the root and source of the magical spring water. Yoohoo and his friends set forth to find this water balloon but in order to get to the Friendly Forest they have to pass the dangerous desert. The desert is famous for its unpredictable weather. One moment it would be sunny and the next it would begin raining, or it would be hot and then suddenly turn cold. As they begin their journey, Oops and Koops also follow behind them and try their best to safely cross the desert.

Synopsis

Yoo-hoo and his friends find themselves in the Dragon Forest. They meet a few dragons and ask them for directions to the water balloon they are trying to find. However, the dragons know nothing about the water balloon and are bothered by Yoo-hoo and his friends. At that moment, the dragon leader tells them that he will show them the way to the water balloon but only if they can help fix his son's problem. They find out that the son of the dragon leader cannot breathe fire. After a few failed attempts by Yoo-hoo and his friends, they are about to give up when Oops and Koops accidentally make the dragon son breathe out fire! It seems that Oops and Koops will get their hands on the water balloon first!

Synopsis

Big Boss is angry because all his plans to take over Greenit have failed. Therefore, he decides to take things into his own hands! In order to visit the village, Big Boss disguises himself as a clown. In Greenit, he wins the favor of all the animals and shows them a video clip of 'Fun Fun Land,' and persuades them to move there. Lemmee is weary of the suspicious clown and figures out that the clown is actually Big Boss in disguise! And just as the animals are about to tell Big Boss the location of the magical spring water, Lemmee jumps in and exposes Big Boss for who he really is!
